

Editorial for Autumn Edition of the SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA 2014

Dear readers and friends,

let me introduce the third issue of the second volume of SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA, an international scientific online journal for the study of legal issues in the interdisciplinary context.

The journal SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA is issued under the auspices of the Faculty of Law of the Trnava University in Trnava, Slovakia, and it thematically focuses on social relevant interdisciplinary relations on the issues of public law and private law at the national, transnational and international levels, represented first of all by following branches of law – legal history, theory of law, roman law, canon law, constitutional law, human rights & fundamental freedoms, international law, European law, civil law, economic law & trade law, labour law, social security law, administrative law, environmental law, financial law, intellectual property law, criminal law and criminology, connected to the key areas of social science disciplines in the broadest understanding, those represent above all international relations, public policy, public administration, psychology, sociology, demography, management and marketing, international economic relations, world economy, transnational economies and national economies.

The journal is issued in an electronic on-line version four times a year, regularly on March 31st, June 30th, September 30th and December 31st, and it offers a platform for publication of contributions in the form of separate papers and scientific studies as well as scientific studies in cycles, essays on current social topics or events, reviews on publications related to the main orientation of the journal and also information or reports connected with the inherent mission of the journal. At the end of every entire volume the journal's editorial office releases in electronic on-line version in the English language prepared abstract proceedings SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA: ABSTRACT PROCEEDINGS summarizing the all individual contributions published in the journal SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA in the corresponding volume.

The journal accepts and publishes exclusively only original, hitherto unpublished contributions in the Slovak language, Czech language, English language, German language, Russian language, French language, Spanish language, Polish language, Serbian language, Slovenian language, Japanese language, Persian language Dari and by mutual agreement in relation to current possibilities of the editorial office also in other world languages.

The website of the journal SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA offers the reading public information in the common graphical user interface as well as in the blind-friendly interface designed for visually handicapped readers, both parallel in the Slovak, English as well as German languages. In all those languages the journal's editorial office provides also feedback communication through its own e-mail address. At the same time the website of the journal offers readers due to the use of dynamic responsive web design accession and browsing by using any equipment that allows transmission of information via the global Internet network.

The current, third issue of the second volume of the journal SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA offers a total of nine separate scientific studies in two languages – in the English and Slovak languages. The first study offers readers very carefully, systematically and in detail the questions of the case law of international arbitration, judicial and quasi-judicial authorities in the area of protection of the rights of indigenous (native) peoples. The following study analyzes the key issues of the legal framework of the mediation institute and the mediator status under the Bulgarian law. The third study analyzes and on basis of individual cases explains the fundamental questions of legal protection of the intangible cultural heritage. The following study concentrates on questions of possibilities, limits as well as mutual interaction between the European Union law and the nuclear liability legislation. The fifth study streamlines and clarifies the current issues of criminal liability of legal entities in the Slovak Republic. The following scientific paper offers readers clarifying the questions of education and training in the field of safety and health at work, specifically from the perspective of the Slovak Republic. The seventh study, based on research realized in the Slovak business companies, comprehensively clarifies and evaluates the issues related to need of realizing the personnel audit. In order the penultimate study defines and comprehensively explains the issues connected with performance management and work performance appraisal in business companies. And finally, the last study very precisely analyzes and deeply evaluates the websites' accessibility of the all individual self-governing regions in the Slovak Republic from the view of applying the skip navigation mechanism.
