

Editorial for Winter Edition of the SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA 2014

Dear readers and friends,

let me introduce the fourth issue of the second volume of SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA, an international scientific online journal for the study of legal issues in the interdisciplinary context.

The journal SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA is issued under the auspices of the Faculty of Law of the Trnava University in Trnava, Slovakia, and it thematically focuses on social relevant interdisciplinary relations on the issues of public law and private law at the national, transnational and international levels, represented first of all by following branches of law – legal history, theory of law, roman law, canon law, constitutional law, human rights & fundamental freedoms, international law, European law, civil law, economic law & trade law, labour law, social security law, administrative law, environmental law, financial law, intellectual property law, criminal law and criminology, connected to the key areas of social science disciplines in the broadest understanding, those represent above all international relations, public policy, public administration, psychology, sociology, demography, management and marketing, international economic relations, world economy, transnational economies and national economies.

The journal is issued in an electronic on-line version four times a year, regularly on March 31st, June 30th, September 30th and December 31st, and it offers a platform for publication of contributions in the form of separate papers and scientific studies as well as scientific studies in cycles, essays on current social topics or events, reviews on publications related to the main orientation of the journal and also information or reports connected with the inherent mission of the journal. At the end of every entire volume the journal's editorial office releases in electronic on-line version in the English language prepared abstract proceedings SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA: ABSTRACT PROCEEDINGS summarizing the all individual contributions published in the journal SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA in the corresponding volume.

The journal accepts and publishes exclusively only original, hitherto unpublished contributions in the Slovak language, Czech language, English language, German language, Russian language, French language, Spanish language, Polish language, Serbian language, Slovenian language, Japanese language, Persian language Dari and by mutual agreement in relation to current possibilities of the editorial office also in other world languages.

The website of the journal SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA offers the reading public information in the common graphical user interface as well as in the blind-friendly interface designed for visually handicapped readers, both parallel in the Slovak, English as well as German languages. In all those languages the journal's editorial office provides also feedback communication through its own e-mail address. At the same time the website of the journal offers readers due to the use of dynamic responsive web design accession and browsing by using any equipment that allows transmission of information via the global Internet network.

The current, fourth issue of the second volume of the journal SOCIETAS ET IURISPRUDENTIA offers a total of seven separate scientific studies, one review of notable scientific publication as well as two pieces of interesting information in three different languages – in the English, Czech and Slovak languages. Within the section “Studies” the first study offers readers very carefully, systematically, and in detail the questions of the factual employment as an immanent part of the Slovak labour law. The following study analyzes the key issues of the youth detention centers and shelter homes in Poland, with the core of the analysis laid on their organization and functioning. The third study accurately analyzes and on basis of individual cases explains the fundamental questions of legal protection of book as the cultural good and medium of data storage from the view of the selected legal regulations under the Polish law. The following study concentrates on detailed clarification and in-depth analysis of the application of the Corporate Governance models, especially in connection with the possibility of the convergence and adaptation of the Anglo-American model of Corporate Governance in China's current economic environment. The fifth study analyzes in detail, streamlines and clarifies the conclusions which brought the latest Slovak survey on the issue of working hours and its impact on quality of sleep and motivation. The following scientific paper offers readers clarifying the questions of research objectives, key issues and conclusions of the current research in the area of the town's image management conducted in selected towns and one region in the Czech Republic. The last study very precisely analyzes and deeply evaluates the websites' accessibility of the central public administration bodies in the Bratislava region from the view of applying the skip navigation mechanism. The following section “Review” offers readers a review of a new unique scientific work – Lexicon of the Slovak Law History, and the final section “Information” provides information on studying the English study program “European Legal Studies” as well as the mobility ERASMUS+ program at the Faculty of Law of the Trnava University in Trnava, Slovakia, and also the information on Forum Iuris Europaeum – the scientific journal for legal science issued by the Faculty of Law of the Trnava University in Trnava.
